The above journal has been struck out by the Deputy Collector himself. He was asked whether the diary really existed in his custody and he said it was not. He reports that the man had been killed by Deputy Collector's father-in-law, Pillai, & Thangal Jeyaraj. Both of them have been struck out apparently under a misconception that the impression that it is a lot of work and as it has been determined that all the names should be brought under the title of the diary the same should be
