On 13th July 1774 this village was mortgaged for 100 Star pagodas to the brother of the first named party in Col 15 by the sons and brothers of the grantee in Col 13. Mortgage deed is produced which contains condition that if any of them pay the original debt at any time without limiting the period the village shall be restored to them and ~~the~~ its proceeds ~~of the village~~ shall be enjoyed in the place of the interest due upon the sum borrowed.

The mortgage transaction is not only proved by the documents produced in its support but also by those mentioned in Col 12 for these [illegible] the other village of Mahadevamangalam belonging to the incumbents and obtained in gift from the sons of the original grantee. These documents also prove the validity of the grant.

The mortgage bond contains a provision mentioned in Col. 20 that if any of the heirs of the mortgagers pay at any time without [illegible] the date the original debt, the annual rental of the village being taken for interest, it should be restored to them. From the ~~statement of~~ the incumbents' vakil's [illegible] the statement of the village [illegible] the heirs of the mortgagers are not [illegible] to be in existence and that there the incumbents only standing in the light of mortgagees having right to the proceeds of the sum so lent in the original incumbency ~~existed~~; but in consideration of the ~~transaction~~ of the mortgage ~~taking~~ having taken place 60 years ago and ~~there~~ its having been repeatedly brought to the notice of the Collector on the occasions mentioned in Col. 12 and the approval of the Board communicated in document No. 5 I am inclined to take a lenient view of the case and recommend the mortgage being confirmed to them without prejudice to the claims of the ~~heirs~~ descendants of the mortgagor as provided for in the mortgage bond should any come forward hereafter subject
