Case 1 — Contd

The Meraseedars then gifted the above right to the remaining two Fields No 1906, & 1975 together with the Mailmaram right thereto to the Vishnu Pagoda of the Village which is accordingly in enjoyment of the two rights to the above 2 Fields — The Holder of the 2d two Fields pay the Mailmaram to the Meraseedars —

The original Vedaurity Inamdar was one Krishnayengar — He was not liked by some of the Meraseedars who introduced another Vedaurity man who contended should share in the Inam — This led to a law suit between Krishnayengar & the Meraseedars who introduced the 2d man — The Court decided finally that the Inam should be enjoyed in shares by all the Meraseedars — & that each Meraseedar was at liberty to find his own Vedaurity man according to his liking — This occured more than 40 years ago —

At present there is no Vedaurity man — In fact there is none as the Meraseedars themselves Vydikas manage without one —

Thus I think the Inam can be held to be Service & so recommend that it may be fully confirmed —

J-R 6/7/68

one Vadhiyar Ramayengar states that he is the owner of the Meeraseeram right to the land (Field No 145) which the other Meraseedars contend was re-mortgaged to them by their mortgagee — The dispute will have to be settled by the Revenue Authorities in issuing Tyem Pattas for the Inam with reference to the Documentary & other evidence that the parties may produce before them —

J-R 6/7/68

D. Robinson
Inam Commissioner

I think that the Inam should be confirmed to Srinivasa Ayyangar on the basis as he obtained possession under a decree of a Civil Court — The decree of the Srinivasa Ayyangar will be ascertained
