This Topes Consists of 1 Tamarind, 10, Illappa, 2 9 Palmira trees — The Tamarind produce is — The Villagers are the trustees for the Pagoda in which they are interested & they say that the annual festival is celebrated from the funds of the Pagoda which they manage having an Olam or Pujari for the purpose — He comes when called upon by the Villagers & has no concern in the management of the Pagoda affairs — The Villagers are divided into two Confirmed on present tenure to the Pagoda in Column 10. J W B min 18/2/69 Roll 2056.

factions at the head of which there are two of the Mearasdars, each of whom is also a Managan in office — They are Subbarya Mudeliar & Lokkaliinga Mudeliar — The former is largely supported by an influential son Appasamy Mudelly an ex Managar turned out for misconduct — the latter brings in a Boy Subbarya Chettiar who is one of the Mearasdars, as the Pujari — It is true he has charge of the Pagoda Plate & valuable articles — This because his house was considered by all to be the best for security —

B This does not make him the Pujari nor can he do what an Olam is required to do during the Pagoda festival — In fact there is generally no Puja ~~generally~~ in such small Pagodas except on stated days of Olam attendance — If the Pagoda the very important one
