Extract from Regl. Letter from Collr. in Cudd. 16 - 23/12/67.

This village appears to have been held on the tenure of Service Inam & not liable to Assessment, abolished by the Regl. Govt. in 1802 and this village was restored to the Inamdar, Appeals & Remonstrances against the Collr. Govt. and the Board of Revenue, the Inamdar has been allowed to hold the Land on the same terms as other Inam villages in the District, viz. 10 per cent on the Gross Produce of the Grants in Cultivation, and 18 annas per Candy on the Grants not in Cultivation on condition of his performing the Police duties required of him, and
