There is one Iswaran Inam fully assessed by Ramachandra Row on the 1st August 1861 as the V.R. shews — It appears in D statement furnished to me from the Central office — But as it remains still uninterfered with, I beg that the Collr may be asked to fully assess it at once —

O.H.S. C. +

Received from the Inam Commissioner's office for disposal and if necessary for report the Arzi of the Shotriamdar of the Shotriem village within which the Inams in the two preceding cases are situated appealing against Commissioner's decision — The endorsement on the Arzi is dated 11th Decr 1863 —

The Shotriamdar being a proper petitioner in the case says that the lands confirmed as Inam to the party in col 16 and the one in case 2 & 3 are not in their enjoyment ~~[illegible]~~ but are such lands as his own lands yielding him revenue. The Shotriem was confirmed to him as the existing tenure by the British Govt in 1802 and the Inams, he complains, were not mentioned as such in the Rewards account of 1800 and the Tarabandi of 1774, so that it is clear that they were not included in the assets of his village and he could not therefore claim the right of revenue to them. ~~All [illegible]~~ the account available subsequent to the Daul is the account of F.1219 in which the Inam appears as under the Shotriem [illegible] having been incorporated with the ~~[illegible]~~ lands, and in the still later accounts of F.1250 and 1268 it appears as Inam in the Inam Register designated as shown in col 16. The fact of the possession of the Inam in case No 2 is undisputed; the Inamdar is the cultivator of the land and the Shotriamdar says that his Melwaram share is paid to him which is denied by the party in col 16 and the petitioner could not show sufficient proofs in support of his statement. Even supposing the Shotriamdar enjoyed the Melwaram for a number of years which is not however satisfactorily proved, I do not think he has any right of [illegible] the Inam which is a Sarva Inam ~~[illegible]~~ not brought into the accounts ~~[illegible]~~. In the absence of entries of names of holders of the disputed Inams in any ~~of~~ ~~the accounts~~ accounts the Shotriamdar ~~[illegible]~~ doubts whether the party in col 16 is the rightful holder; ~~[illegible]~~ there is no difficulty in settling this point. The Inams ~~[illegible]~~ were originally granted as a compensation or reward for allowing the spring channel to pass thro' the villages of Kolattur ~~and Asur~~ and allowing the drainage of [illegible] to the Mirasidars with the tank of the Shotriem previous to its grant. Kolattur belongs to the party in case No 2 and he is the ~~[illegible]~~ Mirasidar, the Mirasi having descended to him in hereditary succession so that very little doubt exists to say that the present Mirasidar is the Inamdar. The Pymash of F.1250 determines the spot enjoyed as Inam and I see no reason to disturb the decision already given by my predecessor. The Inam in case No 3 being of the same nature and the complaint alike, I ~~[illegible]~~ likewise reject the claims of the Shotriamdar for it and confirm it to the parties in col 16 — [illegible] 7/1/64

However in the opinion of Dy Collr K. Gopalaiyer & Regr the appeal of the Shotriemdar who has nothing to do with Inams prior to the date of the Shotriem [illegible]
