

Stem In Tarappady

the General Census - But it appears that the one Rany entered ^{as Suba Sidi} in Tarapady which was not a Sunnd Luam was by mistake entered as such & in consequence omitted in the proper place in Tarapady class - There was a mistake in the Py mesh thro' which the 4 Kuanies remaining as per Rola were classed as Prama Luam - That there was no more than one Rany of the true Prama Luam for the Village, I learn from -

- 1st from the evidence of the accounts
- 2nd from the evidence of the holders.
- 3rd from the items of 4 & 5 having been resumed by a Lord Kuan in his Rola title for want of heirs to the land holders of the Prama family.
