With the Actg Special Assistant Inam Commissioner's Yadast No 24 of the 10th September last, the arzies of Vaidyanathaiyah No 1440 & 2007 of 1862 and the arzi No 149 of 1863 of Krishnaswamaiya claimants for the Nagambattar Inam, Kani 2-4-14 assessment 11-2-1 in the villages of Kavanipakam and Karappakkam of Madhurantakam Taluq. ××

×× Vaidyalingaiya complains against the joint registration of the name of Krishnaswamaiya his divided paternal uncle alleging that the Inams under complaint fell to the exclusive share of his father and that his uncle's name should be cancelled in the title deed. Krishnaswamaiya of Petition No 149 of 1863 has not attended my office although repeatedly sent for and I do not think it advisable to defer the disposal of the case any longer. The Petitioner Vaidyalingaiya produces a Stamped document dated 11th Sept 1853 executed by the Cultivator of the Inam and Kadjan Account of F1266 showing the cultivation and the Melvaram due to him which unquestionably prove ⊗⊗ that the disputed Inams are under his & of his brother's enjoyment alone and not in that of his uncle or any other mentioned in the Regr during his absence. The Inam Regr of 1859 support his statement satisfactorily. Krishnaswamaiya's name is not to be therein found. I therefore recommend the registry of the Inams in the above mentioned villages in the names of the Petitioner Vaidyalingaiya & his brother Subramaniya referring the other Petitioner Krishnaswamaiya to Civil Courts.
