Sri Dharmarajaswami's pagoda

The origin of this Inam as of a date previous or subsequent to the grant of the village to the present Shrotriemdar's ancestors by the ~~[illegible]~~ former Govt is not known. The Inam appears in the Jarabandi and Daul accounts and the enjoyment of the village as Mokhasa is ~~from [illegible]~~ also mentioned in these accounts. So that we are not able to say which is older. The Pagoda is in ruins and the present Shrotriemdar promises to build the pagoda which could be got up at a trifling expense and ask for the registration of this Inam as a Devadayam grant, and I recommend their request being complied with since it is not certain whether the right of reversion ~~[illegible]~~ it belongs to Govt or the Shrotriemdar upon the circumstances above mentioned not being able to say definitely that the Inam came into existence before the first grant of this village on Mokhasa tenure. The Confirmation of this village as a permanent grant by the British Govt does not say whether the Inams were excluded or included and does not enable us to determine the one or the other.

I recommend free of tax so long as the promises ~~[illegible]~~ kept
