The Hazur documents produced show that the land for supporting and extending the [illegible] Chavadi known by the name of its former builder Ayyavaiyar and [illegible] were granted long before the Sanads of 1760 and 1776 and the formation of the village into a Zamindari.

All the Inams entered in the accounts are in the head of [illegible] it has been [illegible] from a portion of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] mentioned in the Sanads to have been [illegible] as including of the Muttadars [illegible] encroachments. I see no objection to [illegible] the [illegible] settlement. The Durable of the late Zemindar admits the existence of the Inam [illegible] for the removal of the crop, the present Zamindar of the village. It is stated by the Karnam [illegible] the right of the present Dharmakarta. In their absence I cannot [illegible] object [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the Karnam says they have [illegible] [illegible] from his statements and [illegible] Zamindar [illegible]

Notice has been served on the Zamindar to ascertain whether or not this Inam was included in the assets of his estate.

3/12/69

The Mirasidars of the Village have filed a statement to the effect that this Inam was gifted to Vykundaperumal Pagoda in the 16th Column by the descendants of Nattu Kumarappa Mudely; that it is still used for its benefit; and that the deed of gift in support of this was lost. The Kurnum in the Register prepared by him remarked that the locality of the Inam is not known; and I thereon served a Notice on the Zamindar, who has not as yet replied to it though the prescribed time has exceeded. The Villagers on enquiry state and attest to the effect that the Inam is in the actual enjoyment of the said Pagoda; and that the Kurnum is ignorant as to who enjoys the Inam.

Under these Circumstances, I would recommend that the Inam be Confirmed in the Name of the said Pagoda subject to 1/8th Quit Rent Annas 12 as long as the [illegible] continues.
