The Collector's Tahsildar dated 15th May 1824 and the register of this village in the names of the parties in col 15 show that it was granted under the orders of Govt dated 1st April 1823 and of the Board's Proceedings of the 10th April of the same year as a Shrotriem to the parties in col 15 in exchange for their old and quondam village of Vettuvayanattam of Tirupporur Taluq for establishing the Cantonment at Pulaveram to which it was adjacent.

In the Tahsildar's and Kurnam's accounts the village appears under the head of [illegible] and Vettuvayanattam [illegible] that [illegible] as this village is a little larger than the old Shrotriem for which it was granted in exchange the old [illegible] upon the former [illegible] to be [illegible] upon this to equalize the bargain.

The validity of this exchange has been established by the ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ among the Board and Govt mentioned in detail in the Collector's [illegible] and in the registration of this village in the names of the parties in cols 15 and 16 in 1824, 1842, and 1848. The last register of 1848 mentions that the party No. 3 [illegible] [illegible] grandson.
