The alienation, is supported by leguments and is traceable from the transfer to the present holder.
The nature of the grant is somewhat of a doubtful character and requires some elucidation. It appears under the head of "Lease in all the acts" commencing with an "Ordinance" and adding "By the 18th and is in-recognised by the witnesses as existing from time immemorial." The certificate of grant in parchment is dated 1794 1794, ~~1794~~ by the present holder, and of acting in favor of Mr. Shammier, Esq. It shows that the land was leased out for a term of 99 years and that at expiration at the end of that term, on payment of 1000 lbs. sterling for another term of 99 years on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed on. The wording of the grant is that the land is to be held
