Case No 1 Tiruvadayanur

Statement by Collector dated 10/7/69 Rec 7/8.

This Inam does not appear either in A or in B statements furnished to me —

In the Pet of A.R.K appears as Case 2 and fully agreed (1) the ground that (2) not stated —

There is no Puja from the last 20 years there was no Pagoda — one was built after words — but still no Puja — The Karnam says that the Inam is enclosures & enjoyed by the electricity under —

To be therefore fully agreed

T.R. 21/10/69

This is the way to be transmitted. You (illegible) Collr. a supplementary notice should be issued to the Inamdar to come the 15th inst. who must produce the statement before him — but on this day no one of the Inamdars appeared — only one Tirumalai Pillai was present & stated that his uncle Ramasamy Pillai was dead & gave notice of his death — Ramasamy Pillai was the Inamdar & he must produce a succession certificate before he can be recognised — he must also produce the Pattah & Kist receipts — Issue T. B. & to Tirumalai Pillai for the 3rd inst. & 4th

Ascertain whether the Villagers are willing to restore the Puja & if so either when or time?
