Trishvaha Agraharam Village of Andikolam in the Taluk of Ponnani of Cochin District

This Village was originally granted by Krishnaswami Adayar King of Mysore to the Ponnani Agraharam

When the assumption of this District by the British Government agreeably to the order of the Government dated 2^d July 1801, this Agraharam was resumed and when the Cultivated lands which were paying equal duties to 1/2 of the then full rent of the Village were hyperately granted to the Agraharamdars as Ponnani freehold land. A letter to this effect is also granted to them which contains the names of the different holders and their respective shares.

Some of the Agraharamdars have subsequently sold made gift and mortgaged their shares to others.

In the present Settlement the shares held by the descendants of the original holders and that of purchasers donees and others who had it previous to July 1801 and to which no claim is now preferred either by the original holders and of their descendants are confirmed to them.

No claims and demands are entered to this Agraharam are entered in Col. 12 of the Register.

The land is not divided among the share holders of this Agraharam but the enclosure of land of each share is formed into shares.
