Assn. petn of Alagasinga Ayangar dated 4 Jan 65 Sl. No 2 claiming the registration of this inam for himself on the ground that he is the daughter's son of ~~the son of~~ Senkigiri Desigar, who was a divided brother of Kolakarupettayavayangar, whose uncle's daughters-in-law are the parties in Col 16. The claim may be a just one but after upwards of 12 years admitted adverse possession with them, the petr. can only be referred to the Civil Courts for redress.

Sitāramaiyar nephew of Lakshminārāyana father to the party N 4 in Col 16. claims this share stating that he was adopted about 16 years ago by Seshammal the widow of the above Lakshminārāyana. Seshammal denies the adoption.
The party N 4 in Col 16 states that her father when was alive presented her this share as well as some other properties and executed to her a Will in 1824 to that effect and she ⊗

⊗ since that period had possession of this share. The Will is established by three witnesses who attested it.
The village officers state that the party N 4 in Col 16 enjoyes her share since the period she had obtained it from her deceased father.
Although the adoption alluded to by the Complainant is not admitted by the above Seshammal yet his right (being an undivided nephew of Lakshminārāyana) to the properties left by him is valid one. As it appears from the enquiry made into this case that the Inam in question is granted to the party N 4 in Col 16 about 15 years ago by the above Lakshminārāyana and that either the complainant or his father have not made any objection to it upto this time. The claim of the complainant to this Inam is therefore invalid. Under these circumstances I confirmed this Inam to the party N 4 in Col 16 and referred the Complainant to the Civil Court for the recovery of other properties left by the above deceased Lakshminārāyana 18th August 1863.

XXX
Case No 131—

Remark on appeal petn of Krishnachari dated 30 Octr 1863 No 2294/5 saying that this & other Inams in Vadavalli 2294/5 & Vadavalampatti are enjoyed by Kuppammal for her maintenance only — that ~~to be~~ he is the proper heir & praying that the Title Deed may be issued to him.—

The claimant is the ~~adopted son~~ representative of a divided branch of the family. He himself admits the family is divided & that he has nothing to do with that. Kuppammal enjoys the Inams as maintenance only. He has at present no interest in the Inam but being a descendt of the grantee tho' divided, ~~[illegible]~~ his existence is a reason for ~~altering~~ reducing the rate of Q.R. to 1/4 Q. which is accordingly done. The Petr also complains that a certain Inam already alienated by her may be re-registered in his name. This cannot be done by this Dept but he may sue in the Court to set aside the alienation. The title deed cannot be issued in the name of the Petr as requested, as he is not in possession & has no present interest.
