

Krishnakka Agraharam Village of Damodara Parani. P. 74 of the Taluk of Palladam of Coimbatore District.
This village was originally granted by Krishnakka Raja of Mysore to the King of Mysore as a reward for his services. On the cession of this District by the British Government agreeably to the order of the Government dated 2^d July 1801, this Agraharam was resumed and in lieu the cultivated lands which were paying equal value to $\frac{1}{3}$ of the then full rent of the Village were separately granted to the Agraharamdars as Manu free of all tax. A Patte to this effect is also granted to them which contain the names of the different shares and their respective shares.

Some of the Agraharamdars have subsequently sold made gift and mortgaged their shares to others. In the present Settlement the shares held by the descendants of the original holders and that of persons to whom the mortgages who had it previous to 1844 and to which no claim or now preferred action by the original holders and of their descendants are confirmed to them.

The documents and accounts connected to this Agraharam are entered in Vol. 12 of the Register.
The land is not divided among the share holders of this Agraharam but the emblem of land of each share is formed into shares.
