Chatalbhogam Village of Madappura P. M. in the Talug of Balladana of Coimbatore District

This Village was Originally granted by Sydar Bahadur of Changanachalau - as Shra Nam Agraharam.

On the assumption of this District by the British Government agreeably to the Order of the Government dated 8th July 1802, the Agraharam was resumed and in low the Cultivated lands which were paying equal value to $\frac{1}{4}$ of the then full rent of the Village were Separately granted to the Agraharamdars as Shra for all tax. A pattern to this effect is also granted to them which contain the names of the different Shares and their respective Shares.

Some of the Agraharamdars have Subsequently sold made gift, and mortgaged their Shares to others.

On the present Settlement the Shares held by the descendants of the original holders and that of the purchasers donors and the Mortgagee who had it previous to 1811, and to which no claim is now preferred either by the original holders and of their descendants are confirmed to them.

The lands are not divided among the Share holders of this Agraharam but the encumbrance of land of each Share is found into Shares. The documents and accounts connected to this Agraharam are entered in Vol. 12 of the Register.
