not known

In the descriptive memoir attached to the Settlement register the inam is shown as Settled. But this inam does not find place in any of the inam registers or in the abstract accounts prepared at the time of the Inam Settlement. According to pannash the total extent of Religious and Personal inams in the village is only Ca 14.10.2 This extent has been settled in three Fitbadeeds, Nos: 197, 198 & 199. The field appears to have assumed the character of inam only during the Settlement. The Land register is not available. The present enjoyer admits that he is enjoying the field for the last 10 or 12 years without performing any service. No body knows where the temple is, or anything about the Pujari Subiya Goundan named in the Settlement Register. The inam may therefore be resumed and fully assessed.
