undivided younger brothers daughters son to the party in the 15 Col — wife 1

⊕ is executed in 1830. The execution of these documents by the deceased Rajammal to the above individuals is established by the witnesses who attested them.

The Village Maniyagar and the Ryots who cultivated the Inam land depose that the above Komarasami Mudili took possession of the Inam land and a house belonged to the deceased Rajammal agreeably to the conditions of the Karárunámah and protected her till her death and the above Ponnambala Mudili or his father never enjoyed them which the above Ponnambala Mudili admits. From a Rájinámáh bearing date 5th April 1843 found in the Taluq Records it appears that Venkatáchala Mudili Elder brother of the ⊕

this Inam stating that the deceased executed a Karárunámah authorising them to take possession of all the property after her death and produced the above documents of which the Karárunámah held by Virangada Mudili father of above Ponnambala Mudili is executed in 1827 and that held by Komarasami Mudili ⊕

This Inam is temporarily attached in 1861 as per order of the Collector to the Tahsildar dated 23d July 1861 for having neglected to keep the Matham in good order and to supply water to the travellers. The village officers state that subsequent to the attachment the Matham is ruined & the services is discontinued and the continuance of it is therefore unnecessary. This Inam under the above ground is recommended to be attached. 21st December 1862. A. Tolasayam
