7. The Inam Commissioner thereupon called for the submission of the usual Inam Register. During the preparation of a Register a doubt was felt as to whether the temple service Inams should or should not be included in the Register. A reference was then made on the subject to the Inam Commissioner who stated in his letter R. C. No 719 dated 16th July 1892 that the service Inams should be excluded from the Register as it has been the practice of the Inam Department to issue Title Deeds for the temple service Inams in the names of servants without any reference to the manager, for the time being, of temples and that this practice would not affect the rights of the temple authorities to eject its servants by suits in civil Courts, for any default on their part. On receipt of this order the manager put in a petition to Government praying for among other things the restoration of certain Inams resumed in 1864, the cancellation of the enfranchisement of the personal and temple service Inams and the Title Deeds issued therefor and for the issue of a single Title Deed for the Village as a whole. On this petition, Government order dated 17th April 1893 No 1379. Revenue based on Government order dated 16th February 1893 No 164 was passed to the effect that all the minor Inams in Sankaramanallur should be cancelled and that a single Title Deed should be issued in the name of the trustee of the Devastanam for the Village as a whole all the minor Inams being included in the Title Deed and the Inam Register. As regards the restoration of the resumed Inams the Government adhered to the decision arrived at in para 1 of the G. O. No 680 dated 8th August 1889 to the effect that the lands in question should remain as Government lands.

8. An Inam Register was accordingly prepared and submitted to the Inam Commissioner with this office letter Ref. on 235 dated 6th March 1895. During the preparation of the Register the manager represented that the retention of the Survey boundaries in the Title Deed to be issued would seriously interfere with the right of the Devasthanam in the Amaravathi and the ~~[illegible]~~ Kudiraiyar rivers which formed parts of the original boundaries of the Village and requested that the original boundaries of the Village be restored. The Inam Commissioner was accordingly addressed. It was also represented that it was found impossible to compel the holders of the minor Inam, Title Deeds to surrender their Title Deeds for Cancellation. The Inam Commissioner thereupon referred the matter for orders of the Government. He supported the recommendation of the Collector regarding the restoration of the original boundaries of the Village and observed that the Cancellation of the enfranchisement of the minor Inams in question made in 1862 would practically result in a revision of the Inam Settlement already made all over the Presidency in the Case of entire Inam Villages leading to the Cancelment of the ~~[illegible]~~ numerous Title Deeds already issued for the minor Inams in them and thereby shaking the Confidence placed in the finality of the Inam Settlement.

9. On a reconsideration, the Government was of opinion that it was inexpedient and probably illegal to recall the Title Deeds issued for the minor service Inams in Perur and Sankaramanallur and cancelled accordingly Government orders dated 16th February 1893 No 164 and 17th April 1893 No 1379 Revenue. The Collector's proposal regarding the restoration of the original boundaries of the village was approved by Government.

10. A revised Inam Register was then called for by the Inam Commissioner. In pursuance of the instructions Contained in the Inam Commissioner's letter R.C.C 719 dated 16th July 1892 a revised Inam Register was submitted excluding all minor Inams settled by the Inam Commissioner in 1862. But the Inam Commissioner again took objection to the inclusion of certain other minor Inams granted for the support of certain minor temples and to temple servants by the Devasthanam Committee subsequent to the year 1862. He was of opinion that these Inams should also be excluded from the single Title Deed to be granted for the Village as a whole and separately dealt with as in the case of similar minor Inams. This proposal was approved by Government in its order No 6023 miscellanious dated 22nd November 1897 Agreeably to these instructions the Inam Register ~~was~~ now submitted has been prepared. The following items have been excluded from the Register.

boundary line of the Lachalapatti Village in Palani Taluk to the north of the Sundakaththattiparai boundary of the Kolumam Village and to the east of the Amaravathi River The southern, lies situated to the south of the Amaravathi River to the west of the Kuttiraiyar river to the north of the Olugaparai boundary of the Andipatti Village and to the east of the Nathamanaickenpalam of the Komaralingam Village

12. The extent of acre 0-66 transferred to Komaralingam and acres 7-89 transferred to Kolumam by the alteration of the boundaries of the Village by the Survey Department should be retransferred to Sankaramanallur and a corresponding deduction noted in the accounts of Komaralingam and Kolumam

13. By the restoration of the Amaravathi & Kuttiraiar rivers as parts of the original boundaries a question arose as to whether the extent of the river bed Paramboke upto the middle of the rivers should not be measured and added to the ayacut of the Sankaramanallur Village. ~~Such~~ Such a Course is however Considered inexpedient and unnecessary as the future alignment of the rivers is not always settled. It will be sufficient to recognize that the Devasthanam Can ~~exercise~~ exercise its rights up to the middle of the rivers.—

14- The Inam Village has three anicuts, one across the Amaravathi and two across the Kuttiraiyar constructed & maintained at its cost. It has been declared in Government order No. 680 dated 8th August 1889 that one anicut channel belonged to the Inam Village and that the Government abandoned its claims to it. The other anicut channels are also in the possession of the Devasthanam.
