

the present Holders had been enjoying $\frac{1}{3}$ of this share each. The remaining $\frac{2}{3}$ having remained in the line of the a dispute arose regarding it at the death of his son's widow between the present holders, some party and his wife's daughter Villummal as the other party. The Villagers interfered and a settlement was effected between the parties whereby Villummal gave up the $\frac{1}{3}$ share in favor of the present holders according to her statement before the Tahsildar. The widow, however, complaining to Sub Collector that her statement was extorted by the Villagers & other officials, the Sub Collector ordered her to be maintained in possession on the condition of her nominating a Gumatth for the Jejarwada-Service supposed to have been attached to the share & to report the name of her nominee for registration. The widow then declared again before the Tahsildar that she has no more interest in the $\frac{1}{3}$ share under a Grant Razanamah, into which she had entered & whereby she gave up the share in favor of the present Holders for certain Coika lands & houses received from them. The Sub Collector then called on the Tahsildar for an application in the usual form being furnished for the registration of the present Holders and sent it to Sub Collector for his confirmation. Here ends the Previous Proceedings. The share is now enjoyed by the Present Holders. Vide:
