The Inam with which the chatram was endowed was resumed under Collr's. attachment from F1252 to F1269 in consequence of the trustees not having built any building as such. The matter has been by the final decree of the [illegible] Civil Courts of Madura in [illegible] August 43 of 1857 Govt. put in possession of the Inam & their surplus funds. They are building a chatram in a substantial style. Will Confirmed free in one D.D. so long as the chatram exists. (Sd) dt 29/6/63. Vide Remarks in the chatram Return of F 1861.	Confirmed.

The early acct- of F1212 is not forthcoming for this Village from the records of the Collector's office where it has been mislaid. Most of the Inams were not entered in F1223 merely because the Inamdars did not present themselves for [illegible] in the Collector's Office. It is clear however from the older acct. of F1236 & the addenda of F1238 with the karnam that the Inams brought in this Regr. were the old Inams as it were. The Court of the appeal decree a [illegible] dated 9th November 1860 decreed 1/3rd of the [illegible] to the trustees for their subsistence & 2/3rd to the Charity. They ruled that the Chatram building should be erected within 18 months though the period has been exceeded yet the building has been very nearly completed and will accommodate travellers next season (Sd) dt 29/6/63.

Since passing the above decision a proposal has been made by the trustees to be allowed to enfranchise the Inam as personal. The particulars of it vide my subsequent remarks in Case 13 of Thadikombu. The average value of the Inam is shown in the margin. The trustees are possessed of competent means.
