Yadh from Depy Collr 6 May 1864 & 16 July 1864 — On investigating a claim preferred by one Dindigul Krishnayan to have this inam confirmed to him, which afterward proved worthless, it came out that Venkataramanayan now registered has no sort of title whatever save an alleged prescriptive enjoyment. He is not Iyangar though usually called Iyan & could not be possibly ~~be~~ a descendant of the original Sadasivayan, ~~a Smarta Bramin~~. He now pleads that he ~~put down~~ what stated at the registration that he was son of a nephew of ~~Sadasivayan~~ was the result of his own ignorance of official matters & that he does not know upon what title his father held the inam. From the statement of the said Krishnayan it would seem that Sadasivayan's son sold the Inam to his own mother in law who he understood subsequently sold the inam to the father of the present holder. This story though it may be partially true is unsupported. ~~but~~ Krishnayan further stated that the present holder & his father ~~f~~ were for a long time the cultivating tenants of the Inam both under the original holders of the Inam & the subsequent purchaser his mother in law. Thus even the alleged enjoyment of Venkataramanayan is not of an absolute kind & it has been already remarked that he has no title whatever to the inam.

The Depy Collr recommends a quit rent of 1/4th modifying his former rate of 7/8 & but I doubt whether even this would sufficiently meet the merits of the case. Submitted for the orders of the Comm^r.
