Vide remarks in case No. 6. This Inam was originally granted for supporting the Pooja of Yekkala Devi as per [illegible] of F1212; in which it is stated, that there was no Pagoda for Yekkala Devi but the idol of granite stone was lying in the Mayidanam on the Plains. In the Chitta of F1223, the Inam is stated to have been held [illegible] & no Pooja rendered. This Inam has been regularly cultivated for the last 20 years & the proceeds appropriated towards Grama Sania [illegible] for the distribution of [illegible], is made once a year by the Villagers in honor of Devai [illegible] Kamakshi Amman, in [illegible], at the feast of F1264. The Inam is entered in the name of Yekkala Devi Amman Grama Sania [illegible]. This is a misappropriation of the Inam. The idol of Yekkala Devi is lying on the Plains. No Pooja has been rendered to the idol for the last 40 or 45 years. The proceeds of the Inam appear to have for some time been appropriated by the Nattamgars for their own use. Under these circumstances the Inam is justly liable to resumption. It therefore reverts to Govt. & it is recommended to be incorporated with Govt. [illegible] 14 Dec Fully [illegible] 20/8/62

1. Kuppaya 37.
2 Rama swamiya 36
3. Senkara Subbaya 45

This Inam is now under attachment under the Collector's order dated 2nd Dec. 1864. Vide remark in case No 6. This Inam was originally granted for the support of the Pagoda of Mungilane Kamakshi Amman at Devadanam patti as per entry in the Chitta of F. 1212. In the Statement of Inams prepared in F. 1229, it is clearly entered that the proceeds of the Inam were appropriated for the Samaradhana of Kamakshi Amman of Devadanam patti. It is so entered likewise in the Inam Register of F. 1223, as well as in the Regr prepared in F. 1261. It is further evident that for upwards of 55 yrs the proceeds of the Inam have been invariably appropriated for the Samaradhana of Kamakshi Amman of Devadanam patti & it appears from enquiry that it has been so appropriated from the Fasli 1212. It must be here observed that the Pagoda of Kamakshi Amman is held in great veneration by the people of this part of the country. The Pagoda is in the village of Devadanam patti of this Taluk. There is a peculiarity in rendering Puja to this Deity. The Pagoda is always kept shut. The doors are never opened. Puja is rendered daily at the doors of the Pagoda. The proceeds of the Inam of the Pagoda at the village of Devadanampatti case 20 are in a great measure appropriated for the distribution of rice & [illegible]; to passengers, &c. There is also an Inam

The circumstances, I would recommend that the Inam be released from attachment & confirmed to the Samaradhana of Devadanam patti Kamakshi Amman under Rule 10 [illegible] Tax Free. In so doing, I would propose that Kilamangalam Kuppayyan one of the principal Pattadars of the village paying a revenue of Rs 250, per annum, be nominated as one of Dharma Kartas to cooperate with the Karnam Nattamai of the village Rama samayan & Senkara Subbayyan.

15 Decr

This is a lapsed case. Linga vadhani, the one whose name the Inam is entered in the Chitta of F. 1212 & 1223, died 36 yrs ago leaving behind him a widow Kuppammal who was unable to render the then required service of Yedurvetti Vritti required of the holder by the villagers. The Mahajanam of the village appear to have put the Inam in the possession of one Kaveri Subbayyan the father of the present holder for Veda vritti. In the Chitta of F. 1229 the Inam was entered in the name of Kaveri Subbayyan who had held the Inam & died in F. 1250. He was succeeded by his son Kaveri Subbayyan [illegible] the death in F. 1261. He was succeeded by his son Kaveri Subbayyan who died in F. 1270 leaving behind him, his uncle's half share Yellappayyan; & his widow Siva Kami & mother Minakshi Ammal. Yellappayyan died 4 years ago leaving behind him 2 sons of whom [illegible]; the Inam has been for the [illegible] 44 or 45 yrs in the enjoyment of the Kaveri family. Now Kuppammal widow of Lingavadhani has come forward [illegible] her right to the Inam but she failed to render the nominal service required of the office & on that account [illegible] usurped the tenure. The present holders who have been enjoying the Inam on condition of nominal service for [illegible] upon no authority have entered into a compromise with Kuppammal before the Mahajanams of the village, & made over 1/4 of the Inam to Kuppammal the widow [illegible] in consideration of her being the widow of the family [illegible] & both parties have accordingly filed a

My statement agreeing to enjoy the Inam in the following shares No 1, 2 & 3. 3/4 & No 4. 1/4

This amicable adjustment appears to be a fair arrangement & is therefore approved. The Inam is undivided. I would therefore recommend that the Inam be confirmed, and 1/4 to No 4 & 3/4 to No 1-2 & 3 [illegible] & 1/4 to No 4 [illegible]
