Register No 16

Sheet No. 16

It is one of the Devadayan Village granted for the support of the Temple of Sri Mangalavara Swami in Tara Thottam
= Rosa Mangalam. two centuries ago - No Patta It was lost - Hence the age of the grant is not supported by documents - The grant is = supported by the penmanship & amount of Rs 211 to Temple is efficiently kept up - The outturn of the Village is appropriated to the expenses of the Temple such as daily & annual ceremonies - For feasts are performed twice a year Five for sun one & the same time -
The grant falls under Rule III of clause one - Last Fee.

The present area corresponds with that given in the account of 1758 & 1245. The boundaries correspond to those given in the account of 1726. The boundaries taken raised no objection ^{against} or found fault with the boundaries. Hence the area of 7 acres is confirmed here.

III. The lands depend upon a small Tank which is out of repair. Hence there is not an Acre is cultivated since 1810. If the Tank is restored at a cost of 50 Rupees the lands will be cultivated. It appears the Tank will be repaired this year. Rice is paid from the funds of the other Villages that are in the manor of the Temple. I charge but with the lowest rate. This is a depopulated Village.
