Register of Devadáyam Village of Rettaivúranivalladivágei No. in Raungamangalam Táluq of Ramnád Zamindari Estate in Madura District

Rettaivúranivalladi Vágei

[illegible]

1 This is one of the 48¾ Villages granted in the Zemindary of Ramnadpuram for the support of the Temple of Sree Rámanátha Swamy and Parvatavardhani Ammen in Rámeswaram — This is a permanent grant — No Potta — The Temple is efficiently kept up under the Hindoo fashion — This is one of the most celebrated Hindoo Temples in India — Car feasts &c are performed periodically — No [illegible] about the area nor about the boundaries — on the part of Raja's Vakeel — Hence the area of 137 Acres is confirmed here — Wet lands depend upon a Tank. It fell into ruin some 25 years ago — No Nunjah Cultivation in the Village — Nunjah lands are Cultivated with Punjah — Lands are of superior quality — Average profits of the Village are 100 Rupees — This is a fair income — Hence I enter this as the Valuation of the Village (col 7) of the Register — The boundaries now inserted for the Village correspond to those in the Account of F.1246 — In the English Account of A.D. 1815 this Village is entered as the one granted for the subsistence of the Pandaram or Trustee of the Temple — This is not true — The Vakeel of the Trustee says that the proceeds of this Village are appropriated to the use of the Temple — Again the Village is entered in the said Account of A.D. 1815 under the head of Devadayam of Rameswaram Temple — Hence the Village ~~and~~ is registered in the name of the Temple —
