

I This is one of the Devadigam Villages situated within the limits of the revenueary of Ponnand. This was granted by the Emperor to the support of the Temple of 13. This is a permanent grant. No breach in enjoyment. Pottu is one copper plate. It shows that this was granted to the charges of worshipping the Swamy at forenoon every day - The Temple is sufficiently kept up for feast & worshipment. The object of this grant is not in any way frustrated.

II... The area of the Village corresponds to that given in the account of 1721 &c. No Lark area about the town since the area of 39 1/2 acres is confirmed here.

39<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> Acres is confirmed here.
 III. The lands are cultivated under a Lease. No waste either in Punjab or in Rajah. Soil of a moderate fertility generally.
 Average net profits of the Village are 32- Rs per annum. I frame the valuation as shown C 7
