

Coester No. 751

Register no 257
Sheet no 882

This is one of the Village granted for the support of the Temple of Rao Rameswara Swamy & Parasurama and his Successors at This is a permanent grant. Patta is on Copper plate. The genuineness of which is doubtful as it is said in the 1815 that there is no Patta for the Village. No talker about this are can about the boundaries on the part of Rao's Taluk Hence the area of 27 Acres is confirmed here. The temple also is situated within the proper limits of the Village.
It is on this from the standard accounts from some mistake or other - The temples of Ram, Venkateswara
III What lands depend upon a Taluk. Land is of a superior quality. The average profits of the Village are 30 per cent.
The Land is not in revenue

As per Act of 12th

[illegible][illegible]

To the Hon. Mr. [unclear]
 One Year Free
 Feb. 5. 1853
 Confirmed in present tenure
 R. M.

Handwritten: 27763
Handwritten: 674
Handwritten: 788
Handwritten: J. Dun

For the charges of Kamsa
Madhu
Swami,
Parwata
wardhami
Ammon
and other Kouil
in Kamrod

A close-up photograph of a single, elegant calligraphic flourish or signature. The stroke is dark and fluid, starting with a large loop on the left, crossing itself, and ending with a long, sweeping tail that curves downwards and to the right. The background is a textured, light brown paper with some minor dust specks.

175