IV - Wet lands depend upon one tank of moderate size. It is sound in strength. It is fed by one of the large tanks in the Village of Yettivayel. The Tank of the Ayen Village of Yettivayel is fed by the river Vaigayar - an influential river in the Village. Hence the tank of the Damasanam under settlement has an influential supplying Channel - The Tank is fed annually in ordinary seasons - The Mahajanams say that the Wet lands classed as waste are Mattukad or the lands Cultivated occasionally - As usual it is proper that there is some exaggeration in the matter. Wet lands are Cultivated 2d time to 1/4 or 1/5 of the area - This year the Mahajanams say that about 25 Acres of Wet are Cultivated 2d time - From this it is evident that there is no much waste in Wet mi... Lands. Wet & Dry soil is of a superior quality generally - No Vanbovi is raised - The Village is in flourishing state - It is situated at a distance of about ... Ramnad ... market - On the whole the essential ... supplying Channel is an influential ...
