1 One Bangalore Pannenger flamm by the village on the ground but they have been occupied by the Mahaganams half century ago - These the Deputy Collector remarks in Tempalagudi - In the documents produced by the Ramant the name of the village Kottayarkottai is not inserted but the Kottayarkottai & Tempalagudi are considered to be the same to each other beneath the Ramant flamm for 7 dead the village in both the villages.

1 Well lands upon a tank of moderate size - It is fed by rain
 - Season - The Mahaganams say that the well lands are as waste as 7 or 8 years - waste & that the dry lands are as waste as 10 or 12 years -
 - are 18 years uncultivated lands - From the verbal statement of the parties in the village, it appears that - there are not much waste lands in the village - Soil is of a superior quality generally - The Mahaganams
 - who planted the trees are 3 to 4 years of well & 6 or 8 years of dry - stated that they are left waste from want of water
 - Well lands are cultivated 2 times to a small extent - occasionally - Scarcity of water is felt occasionally -
 - The village on the whole is fertile one - There is a small well or 2 here - Average profits of the village are -
 - 139 of the weight of the rice is very low & unfair - The Deputy collector has no materials to show the average rate of the amount of the village
 - Well lands - The dry lands of the neighboring villages are the same - The Mahaganams say that the village is very poor
 - are - The sandy
