

III. The person of 16 purchased the Darmasaram Village on the 6th January 183 for Rupees 358. from one Gopalayen son of Vengur Varim, who is a descendant of the Original Grantee. Bill of sale in stamp paper. This transaction proved to be bonafide. Engaged by the seller as to the transaction. The decree of the late Peshwa of Ramnagar in suit No 733 of 1805 on the boundary dispute that then arose between this & another Darmasaram Village known by the name of Tambel, shew that the father of the seller ^{was} a rightful owner of the Village - Hence the right of the person No 16 is not open to any dispute. This village bears Pottah or Doot of 71.9 which is payable to the Peshwa permanently without reference to the adversity of seasons &c. The seller is a person of above 50 years of age & is a bachelor & is perfectly of his own mind. He has not any other relation from whom he can claim the highest rate of rent as a tenant in the name of Dharmaram.
