The Sub. magistrates of Ramnath reports that the holders of the village refused to accept the increased Luit Rent. As the original valuation was framed on such consideration and as the villages refused to leave their Village unfranchised, on the enhanced Luit Rent, the Deputy Collector cannot recommend any change in the original Luit Rent. If the Commissioner be still of opinion to increase the original Luit Rent, the ruling must be confirmed, on its present terms.

The valuation of the best land seems fair - but that of the dry lands very low. The D^{rs} were asked whether the value of the cultivated dry land corresponded to the minimum prevailing in the valley
