Donna Lu. allezzari, Dono = 4

I was one of the Commissioners for the support of the Temple of Allagorah, and in 1801 I visited it. This is a fine and grand temple - The Temple is situated in the village of Allagorah, which is one of the most important temples in Tanjore District. The Village was purchased by Pottabotter Subbarayan & Co. from the Government of the same to the Temple. The Village is in the possession of the Temple since the date of the grant. The Village is divided into two parts - The Temple part and the other part. The revenue of the Village is divided between the Temple and the other part. The Temple part is managed by the Rang of Ramaswami. The Rang of Ramaswami is a person who is appointed by the Government to manage the Temple. He is responsible for the management of the Temple and the collection of the revenue. The Rang of Ramaswami is also responsible for the maintenance of the Temple. The Rang of Ramaswami is also responsible for the collection of the revenue. The Rang of Ramaswami is also responsible for the maintenance of the Temple. The Rang of Ramaswami is also responsible for the collection of the revenue.

The lands depend upon one tank - Soil is of a superior quality generally. Average profits of the Village are 160-4- per annum.

The Village is in the Board Register of A.D. 1875.
