

Register of Dhamasam in Village of Kuranindal in Kuranindal Taluq of Ramnagar District of the Province of Bihar

Kuranindal 1307/1308

This is one of the Dhamasams in the pargana of Ramnagar. It was granted by the Emperor of 101 to the person of 103 for subsistence.

This is a hereditary grant. It is in uninterrupted possession of its holders since the date of the grant. There is a Patta on a finger leaf. This is not a registered.

But the existence of it is mentioned in the pargana account of 1885. Hence this is a genuine one. The village is again supported by the account of 1812.

No. 1. Kuranindal, about the same boundaries on the part of Ramnagar. The boundaries correspond to those in the account of 1812.

Area of 28 acres is confirmed here. The Ramnagar village pleased verbally that 6 3/4 of dry muskard as Chadarackad belongs to the Ramnagar.

& failed to prove the same. Chadarackad is a spring of ground growing with Duglha. In several of the Dhamasams and the former parganas account.

40 or 50 years ago certain land grown up with Duglha though they are situated within the limits of the Dhamasams. The subject is under reference.

As soon as I hear from the Manager, I shall bring the matter to the notice of the Commissioner specially. But in the case now under settlement.

no land is awarded as Chadarackad either in the account of 1811 or 1812. Only in the account of 1812, 6 3/4 acres are placed as Chadarackad.

This Chadarackad is in possession of enjoyment of the land either from some immemorial or the lands are situated within the parganas.

of the village as it is proved to be the case by the pargana account. Hence the claim of the village is rejected & 28 acres are confirmed here as the area of the village.

The persons of 101 are aborigines. The father of the person of 106 purchased lands in 1834 in the name of a Brahmin named Subbarao.

Chadarackad. With a view that the person will not permit others from Brahmins to buy Dhamasam villages. In the same year he sold Chadarackad.

Sharma to Mr. Rutherford of 1811. In 1811, Subbarao executed an agreement to the father of the person of 106 admitting that the person of 106 is not of his own & that it was purchased by him on behalf of the father of the person of 106.
