II Wet lands depend upon our tank. It is fed by the tank of Kalay
 - a dry village, which is fed by the tank of Kalay
 - a superior quality generally of the best. The Mahajanams say that the lands of land as waste and neglected. There is some exaggeration in the matter
 - as what some of the Mahajanams admit that the Mahajanams of the full water land
 - as waste with a view to lessen the value of the village. Some of the full lands are full water occasionally & some are full water as well as some are
