Sheet No 1309

I This is one of the villages in the zamindari of Wanganga. It is not known when, by whom, & for what purpose the Village was granted. This is entered as Dharmasaram in the Account of 1721 & 1726. It is omitted from other Accounts - This is one of the villages deducted from the assets upon which the Permanent Settlement was based. No Talk am about the area or about the boundaries on the part of the Rango Taluk. The boundaries now situated in the Permanent Settlement are in the Account of 1726. Hence the boundaries are confirmed here & the 220 Acs & 96 Futs situated therein are registered here.

II The history of the Village is this - The Village was purchased long ago by the Pottumam Zamindar & it was given in "Thiruvana" to his Daughter Vella Nachiyar. After the death of Vella Nachiyar which could not take place 30 years ago, the Village fell in possession of her Daughter Pithamma Nachiyar. This was sold in satisfaction of the private liabilities of the said Pithamma Nachiyar in a decree of the Court of Madras in suit No 5 of 1852 in public Auction. In this Auction, the Village was purchased for the zamindar of Wanganga (now Ex-Zamindar & son of Pithamma Nachiyar) by the Agents of the Court of Madras under whose management the Village was sold for Rs 555. On the 12 July 1860 or as soon as the zamindari was made over to the zamindar, the Village was restored to Pithamma Nachiyar. In the estate of things, the Village has been placed under attachment by the Rango Taluk. The Village is a Rango Taluk property & it should be restored to her under the Decree of the Court of Madras. The Village was sold on the 12 July 1860 by the Ex-Zamindar on the occasion of restoring the Village to Pithamma Nachiyar. The Village is now in the possession of the Rango Taluk. The Village is now in the possession of the Rango Taluk. The Village is now in the possession of the Rango Taluk.
