The grant of this Inam for the support of the Temple in Column 8 is carved out on a stone on a wall of the temple. It is alleged to have been granted by Manava Sakkaravarthy long ago for the purpose of keeping two lights every year on his birth day & for the daily puja & for a special festival in the month of Vyasi. The agent of the Zemindar admits that it was granted for the support of the temple. This Inam is entered in the account of Fasli 1211 as Thiruvelidam Kondanar Kovil service Inam. The income of the Inam has been estimated to be Rs 48 – " – 4.

No disputes as to the boundaries.

The Deputy Tahsildar of Tiruvadanai personally inspected the inscription and is of opinion that the writing was inscribed long ago and looks ancient. The temple, it appears, stands in need of repairs.
