1 In the Estimate account, Pongal is entered in lump both for the Village & for Nallatturgal as 1500 pagodas & odd - at present two Villages or Dharmasanams were then in possession of one & the same family - Subsequently or about fifty years ago when the Village fell in possession of strangers, Pongal was fixed as 26-3-6 for the Dharmasanam under Settlement & stated for Nallatturgal Dharmasanam

Valuation

1 Set Lands depend upon 3 Tanks of small size - They are in repair. They are the Lands of Land as waste are deducted from the extent of the adjacent villages it appears that there about are very few waste lands - 1/4 of the Melvaram is cultivated annually on an average No single Lands on this Village - I have no accounts to find out the average assessment of the adjacent Agen Villages - The average assessment of the Talug area in which this Village under settlement is situated is given in the margin - The Average assessment is high - the Lands in this Village are of a superior [illegible] generally & average profits of the Village as per statement are [illegible] the H. M. 16 are 400 pagodas per annum - I am quite [illegible] - In consideration of the fertility of the Lands in this Village I have valued the Lands with the aid of the H. M. & the Fanam assessment in the Village -

1 Set 10 Acres - Cultivated annually once & partly 2 times at 7 0
7 Pagodas per Acre
1 Set 7 1/2 Acres portion of which is fallowed as detailed above
