

Kila Kallangulam

I This is one of the villages in the Devadayan of Sivaganga. The was granted for the support of the Temple of Perumal the Amman & Sivaswami Perumal in Madurai. There is a permanent grant to the Temple. The Temple is offensively kept open. The object of the grant is reported to be by the Nany's Vakeel, to give Pramin once in a fortnight or on every Dwadasi day in the Temple. It is entered as such in the Devadayan Account. On every Dwadasi day not less than 12 Pramin are fed in the Temple. Thus the object of the grant is offensively kept open. No Talk was about the area or about the boundaries on the part of the Rango Vakeel. The boundaries now inserted in the Devadayan Account correspond to those in the Account of 1724. Hence the 391 Acre & 98 Guntas are confirmed here. These lands are situated within the proper limits of the Village. The Village is entered in the name of the Devadayan in all the Accounts. The powers of the Village are appropriated to feeding Pramin on every Dwadasi day or once in a fortnight as usual from time immemorial.

II The average income of this Village is 156 Rupees per annum. The entire Village is in possession of the Temple from time immemorial.
