17. The person No 13 of 1866 pleads that the Hamlet of Kottakkom was purchased mortgaged to the person No 13 of 1866. The person No 13 of 1866 pleads that the Hamlet of Kottakkom was purchased about 57 years ago by the then holders of the 13 Pongos in the Kottakkom Village of Paranguruzi. Defendants plead that their forefathers purchased the Hamlet in A.D. 1818. for Rupees 52-64 from the Allobuzans of the Village & produced deed of gift and to have been executed by the sellers to the purchasers on two plain paper leaves. The boundaries of the Hamlet are given in the Bill of sale. It is proved by the Allobuzans who are given as witnesses that the Bill of sale is a genuine one & the Village is in possession of the Hamlet. of the Defendants since the date of the purchase. The person of 1866 No 13 says that his ancestor purchased shares in the Village and by deed to the said Hamlet was mortgaged. He is a young man. His claim is not proved. Hence the claim is rejected & the party is referred to Court. The complainant failed to prove his case.
