To be confirmed under Rule III clause one. Tax free Zamindar's jodi Rs. as per 3-15-6.	Asst. Collector 6/12. Comp. Inam Comm.

The land was granted for Puja and Neivethium (offerings) to Periyanayagi amman at Erungirai village. It is now in the possession of its worshippers. Alagu-pattai and Periyasami-pattai and measures 12 columns 9 marukals and 8 measure of seed seed. The original extent of Inam granted was 5 columns of seed land. The partially the result of incorrect measurement at the date of grant. The Zamindar objects to the settlement of the Excess and I think it is useless as the result of Inam Commissioners enquiries have in majority of cases disclosed similar excess. Hence the [illegible] 8-15 acres is confirmed here. No boundaries are given of the Inam in the public accounts in the Collector's Office. The average income of the pillay is Rs 30-10-2 according to the statement of Zamindar but it amounts to Rs 34-9-9 as shown below.

Wet 4-48 acres cultivated at 6 Rs per acre — 26-14-1
