whose name was Lakshmanayyengar, made a bequest ^{see} All his property, save two ^{us} written in the village under settlement, to the person No. 1 in Col. 16, who is his younger sister's son and executed a deed to that effect in A.D. 1862, July on the eve of his death. The document is on a stamped paper. The widow No. 2, who appeared before me in this office, admitted the genuineness of the deed. Of the 2 writhees, allotted to the widow No. 2 in Col. 16, it is said in the deed that one is to be disposed of by her as she thinks proper, and another is to be transferred by her to the person No. 1 in Col. 16, enjoying it as long as she may live. To this the widow No. 2 in Col. 16 consented. Again, it is not stated in the Deed or Will, whether this writhee is to be transferred to the heirs of the person No. 1 in Col. 16, if he dies previous to the widow No. 2 in Col. 16, or this writhee may be disposed of by the widow No. 2 in Col. 16, if the person No. 1 in Col. 16 dies previous to her. I think the widow No. 2 in Col. 16 may dispose of the writhee, if the person No. 1 in Col. 16 dies previous to her. However, it is said in the Will that 2 writhees have been allotted to the widow No. 2 in Col. 16 and that she is to dispose of, one of them if she thinks proper and enjoy another, to retain it in her possession to be given to the person No. 1 in Col. 16 to perform her funeral rites, after her death. Hence the 2 writhees are registered in the name of the widow No. 2 in Col. 16 and 4 in the name of the person No. 1 in Col. 16. The widow No. ² _{us} in Col. 16 will have to guide by the will, if she dies previously. Further, it is mentioned, in the will that one pangu, out of 4 entered in the name of the person No. 1 in Col. 16, has been granted for the maintenance of Muttamahal, younger sister of the deceased long ago, and that, that Pangos also is to revert to the person No. 1 in Col. 16, after her death. The said Muttamahal is living with the person No. 1 in Col. 16 and the person No. 1 in Col. 16 is supporting her. They are in good terms. Hence the Writhee is entered in the name of the person No. 1 in Col. 16.
IV Properly speaking, the shares held by the widow No. 2 in Col. 16 should be charged with half accostment, but this being a single settlement, it is charged for all indiscriminately.
