

Stammes - der Jüde

These are the 3 Hamlets in the Zamindary of Dwergungal. They were granted by whom it is not known for the support of the Temple. These Jagat Jagwara are hereditary. These are permanent grants. No Patta. The Temple is efficiently kept up. These Villages are situated contiguous to each other. These are brought in on one & the same Rajwade - as the recognized boundary line runs around all them including all these lands & as the former our settlers there & treat as one. No Patta as to confirming here the recognized boundaries of these Hamlets or Villages, on the part of the Pargana Valued. Hence the recognized boundaries.

are copied here & pages 8 & 9 of the 1st part situated therein are registered here.

II. These 3 hamlets are entered in the name of the Temple in the Accounts of 1721-1723 &c. But in the Account of 1722, the name of the Village is given as Periya Sentalanendal. This is a mistake. The proper name of the Village is Munnarandol. There is no such Village as Periya Sentalanendal.

III The average income of these villages are 400 Rupees per annum as per statement of the Rangis Vakeel. This is a fair income. The Temple is under the management of the Rangis -
