Mayarindal handtz Chimabengavayal, Azon the age-

1 There is one of the villages in the panni saray of Puroyarya. This was granted for the support of the temple of Lord Ragesh a Vinayak in Pithoragarh district of Panni. The temple is apparently kept up. No Panna. The grant is supported by all the accounts of 1812. The panni saray of the village has not been recorded in any of the accounts. The trustees have no materials to prove their right to the encyclopaedia brought on the register. Hence the area of $3\frac{1}{2}$ acres is registered here leaving the right to the encyclopaedia settled between the panni saray & the trustees. Then Puroyarya is also called by the name of Lakshmi of Panni. Panni, Panni, Panni. The average income of the village is ^{Rs. 1200} Rs. 1200 per annum. I have registered here the $3\frac{1}{2}$ acres that are supported by the accounts of 1811 & 1823. The temple is under the management of the trustees from generation to generation.
