This is one of the Darmassanan Village in the peninsula of Ponggol - This was granted by the Governor of S.H. to the King of Siam in exchange -

Account. No Tall ones about the area or about the brown ones on the part of the Rang's Valley. The brown ones ~~are~~ now inserted in the remaining stems correspond to the recognized brown ones of the village. Hence the brown ones are compared here & the 9th & 24th feet exhibit them registered here.

III The present 117016 is a descendant of the Cape Grant Co. - The entire Village is in possession of the H. 15.

III. One Leemanszen, Libbaizen & Keenat dy, Gen, among the Dutch Pleasants of the village of the p^{er} 115 place. The Village by reason that they are enjoying more enjoying the Village when the last Pleasants were under full title. The p^{er} 116 pleased that the Village is in his possession & that he is enjoying the same. The Pleasants failed to prove their claim. The p^{er} 116 provided receipts granted by the Gen. on 5 June 1814.

for the payment of Purchase of the Village for series of years from A.D. 1801 to A.D. 1806. Here the plain is a great testament only that it is his property. The gentleness of these receipts is proved by the name of the village and the name of the owner with the area of the same. His next side
