Each of these half villages consist of 70% of the value of an equal extents they are engaged as shown in the margin of the preceding side

The lands are undivided - Pongu is paid equally on the measure of Villages - The lands in these 3 halves of villages of the Dammasanam portion, are mingled together & the produce thereof is shared out

70% shares - by the Mahajanams - in proportion to their respective shares

Again, the Ayen & the Dammasanam portions of lands are undivided

The produce of these 3 entire villages, is shared equally between the Mahajanams & the Jemmas - This custom is prevalent from time immemorial & though these are not Abrahmanyams

The Mahajanams request that the lands of these villages may be divided equally between themselves & the Jemmas & state that they are put into several troubles from the lands being undivided - The Rang's Vokel says that he should write to the Rany or the Rajah

& learn from him how she likes the arrangement proposed by the Mahajanams

II No. 18. Is known about the Area or about the boundaries on the part of the Rang's Vokel

The boundaries now inserted in the remainder statement correspond to those in the Account of 1846 - Hence the boundaries are confirmed here & the 637 Acre situated there are
