III One Muttuswamy Natch Tunkel of old purchased the entire Village in 1808 for Rupees 500 from one Rameswami who purchased it previously in 1803 from one Goupy Velluhoi. Tunkel paid Rupees 999 - The said Tunkel purchased it from one Pankasa Muttuhoi Pelloi, who purchased it previously from the Muttuhoi name. Bill of sale of 1803 is on stamped paper & that of 1808 is on stamped paper. Translated from the original. Enjoys the same

The Trust requires that the Village & more are endowment by the same to need transference of all Mantapagudya or festival performed once in a day for the Deity of Sri Sundara Rajah Perumal in the temple Govil - This Mantapagudya is performed in a Mantapagudya built on the banks of the Ganga in Madurai at the request of the Trustee. I registered this Village with the name of the Deity - And from 1868 was registered in the District in 1871.

the Deputy Collector. Valuation The Wet lands in the Village depend upon one Tank. It is in repair & is by one of the Temple Streams. The Tank is filled annually. Scarcely a
