This image shows a blank, aged, light brown page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a textured, slightly mottled appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. There is a faint smudge or mark near the top left corner. The overall tone is a warm, yellowish-brown.

IV. One Muttammal & her husband's Elder Brother son Akkalandammal filed that the remaining half Village was purchased by them further in law and in 1804 for Rs 63-4-0 from one Ananta Bheri, descendant of the Off. Grantee - Both of them on a plain paper deed - Transaction proved to be bonafide by the surviving descendants of the Off. Grantee - One Pokalingum alias Lawmya claims to the said half Village which was purchased by the father of Muttammal & Akkalandammal in 1804 on the ground that it was purchased in the said year 1804 from the funds of his father, that it was purchased in the name of the father in law of Muttammal & Akkalandammal as he was then, he says, in a very good circumstance in the head of the family;
 - that he (Pokalingum) is the son of Elder. Sister the husband of Muttammal & Akkalandammal;
 - that Periyaswika Nanyar, the late husband of Muttammal gave the half Village to him about 11 years ago on the ground that it is his (Pokalingum's) patrimony & attested the mortgagbond which ~~was~~ ^{is} he (Pokalingum) executed to one Arumashellam Satty & others in 1855 mortgaging the half Village & that the half Village is in his possession since the last 11 years - The said Pokalingum admits that previous to 11 years, the Village was in possession of the husband of Muttammal - & Akkalandammal & previous to which in possession of their father-in-law as he & his father & the husband of Muttammal in need to him together Muttammal & Akkalandammal also Pokalingum filed that the mortgag bond produced on a plain paper deed by Pokalingum is not genuine one nor is it bear the signature of the husband of Muttammal, who died about 5 years ago; that the half Village is in possession of the family of his father since the date of the purchase - & that Pokalingum had nothing to do with the half Village - In proof of this he produced the bill of sale which that the half Village was purchased by the father-in-law of Muttammal & Akkalandammal & also produced four extinguished mortgage bonds showing that a portion of the half Village was mortgaged in those years - These mortgage bonds are admitted to be genuine by Pokalingum & by his father-in-law of the remaining half Village of 1-2-3 & 4 of 16 aya the half Village in dispute of Muttammal & Akkalandammal - & that the husband of Muttammal also attested to them 50-4-1853 - certain 1/2 & 1/4 of lands in the half Village in dispute upon two deeds of gifts on a plain & are produced to me. The father of Pokalingum admits the genuineness of the deeds of gifts - Pokalingum not only failed to prove that the mortgage bond produced by him bears the of Muttammal & also he admits that the half Village was not actually mortgaged bond - He said Pokalingum no documents to show that the husband of Muttammal & his, nor is there evidence to this effect - On the whole as it is proved that the half Village in question is belong to Muttammal & Akkalandammal who are mentioned 5 & 6 of 1855 & Pokalingum is refused to file
