Vala R Kani

This is one of the Damascus maps & the boundaries of Longayse. It was granted by the government of the province of Aleppo in 1793 for an endowment.
This is a handwritten map showing the boundaries of the village of Longayse. The map is drawn on a piece of paper that has been folded over several times. The drawing shows a rectangular area with some internal divisions. There are some labels in Arabic script around the perimeter of the rectangle. The map is quite old and the ink is somewhat faded.
