Handwritten text in Burmese script, organized into columns and rows. The text appears to be a ledger or record book, with entries numbered 1 through 8. Each entry includes a date (e.g., 1892, 1893, 1894) and a description of an event or transaction. The text is written in a cursive style, typical of Burmese script. There are also some numbers and symbols interspersed throughout the text, possibly indicating measurements or specific details. The document is aged and shows signs of wear, with some ink fading and paper discoloration.
